Pourdavoud Center for the Study of the Iranian World

Fall Welcome Reception

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2019 | 4:00 - 6:00 PM | 306 ROYCE HALL

Please join us for a fall reception at Royce Hall to celebrate the continued success of the Pourdavoud Center for the Study of the Iranian World. In the company of Dr. Anahita Naficy Lovelace and Mr. Jim Lovelace, the Center's benefactors, David Schaberg, Dean of Humanities, M. Rahim Shayegan, the Center's director, our staff, academic affiliates, colleagues, students, and esteemed guests, we shall be introducing the Center's stimulating programming and research agenda for the Academic year 2019-20, while partaking of light refreshments.

Established in 2017 as the premier research center for the study of ancient Iran, the mission of the Pourdavoud Center for the Study of the Iranian World is to engage in transformative research on all aspects of Iranian antiquity, including its reception in the medieval and modern periods, by expanding on the traditional domains of Old Iranian studies and promoting cross-cultural interdisciplinary scholarship.

The Pourdavoud Center operates as disciplinary home to stimulating intellectual encounters and exchanges for scholars working on ancient Iran and the ancient world, and contributes to the development of collaborative research projects in such diverse areas as Art History, Assyriology, Biblical Studies, Central Asian studies, Classics, Egyptology, ancient History, Indology, Near Eastern and Levantine Archaeology, Sinology, and the Study of Religion.
